Doris Elaine Roth is a very sweet lady. She was born in 1925 and is 91. She was a dental hygienist. Her favorite animal is a bird. She loved to play with dolls. Purple and pink are her favorite colors. She also enjoyed dancing with her friends in her teen years. Her favorite food is cheesecake.

where She Lives

Doris grew up on a farm. She moved a lot, but she liked every place that she lived in. She had a lot of big houses also. Now she lives in Island Shores and has many friends there. Her family always had big gardens.

Family Creations

Doris's sister-in-law carved a very realistic wooden bird and then painted it yellow. Then her sister-in-law tucked a very nice picture of a bluebird on purple flowers. She then put it into a calendar with some other pictures of birds that Ellen took. Ellen also made a photo album for her. They made these for her because she loves birds and butterflies. Her shirt even had birds on it and her walls had pictures of birds all over.

Magazines/Reading

Doris loves reading magazines and she also loves looking at the pictures. Her magazines gave her a lot of cool ideas like building bird houses. All her magazines were about birds and butterflies. She enjoyed reading them to us and we enjoyed listening to her read it to us. She is wonderful at reading we could really understand what she was saying while she read it to us.
