I. Principal's Report (Mrs. Chrisman):

- A. Artist in Residence was wonderful. Katie MckY books will be in around 5 weeks.
- B. Stem Night is this Thursday 5:30-7:30. Last year Spring Road worked with Georgia Pacific; this year our school and Tullar. Kim Cannon is the contact (former Alliance parent).
- C. Mrs. Rossing is putting a flyer into Wednesday envelope about the garden club. We'd like to get the fence posts in around the garden before the frost comes.

II. Chairperson's Report (Jill Aykens):

- A. Conference meals: Roosevelt is taking care of dinner on the 28th, ACE will do lunch for the 29th. There will be a signup genius.
- B. Shopping night: 3 hours fundraiser. Anybody who's potty trained. A night in December, 5-8 p.m.
- C. Lori Murphy confirmed Skate/A&W Nights: October 20 wear your Halloween costume. November 18. 4:30-8:30 A&W, Skate 5:30-7:30.
- D. Nichole will again chair bookfair. Setup on October 27th after school. There will be a signup genius. October 28th 4:00-8:00, October 29th 11:30-8:00. Cleanup 7:30 to 8:30 on the 29th.

III. Teacher's Report:

- A. Upcoming fieldtrips: Kindergarten to Mulberry Farm October 21. Grade 4/5 to Hiawatha tomorrow. 1-2-3 to Mosquito Hill Thursday.
- B. Friday October 23rd parents in the classroom from 1:00 to 3:00. Parent/teacher conference schedule will go home Monday.
- C. Mrs. Connor's sub is Maddie Stumpf.
- D. Improving SRAs (reading comprehension selections). The ones currently used are outdated. Ms. Cates found an online version. There were few technical problems initially, but Mrs. Cates (used last year) said it was wonderful and the kids enjoyed them more. From Science Research Associates.

IV. Education Coordinator (Kelly Ellington): Volunteer orientation took place two weeks ago; approximately 8 parents in attendance.

- V. Treasurer's Report (Nichole Verhagen): Budget was presented; taxes are filed.
- VI. Other (Jill):
 - A. Teacher meal pickup. Alliance will take care of Oct. 23
 - B. Half Day Fun Fridays: something in November
 - C. Butter braid/poinsettia sale pickup is Nov 17th. Market Day went out of business, so we cannot do it.
 - D. Glow Run is Friday. 150 people are signed up ahead of time. Ryan Otto will be DJ. There will be a picture booth and food.
 - E. We will do Christmas Light recycling again. Menard's, True Value, Horicon Bank. One pickup in December, one in January. Looking for adopt-a-box people.
