

ACEC Board Meeting
March 8, 2016 – 6:30 p.m.

Present: Kylie Sieck, Erika Otto*, Jill Aykens*, Lori Hein*, Erica Cates*, Kim Krause*, Joanna Morey, Jen McMahon, Stephanie Markman*, Christina Jungwirth*, Kelly Ellington*

I. Joint agenda with Roosevelt:

- A. 5th grade breakfast. Fifth grade teachers want to do it separately because of space reasons. Allison Baughman and Kim Krause will pick out dates.
- B. Doty Island Cleanup is May 7th 8 a.m. to noon. Meet at Neenah Club/Youth Go near Saint Patrick's. We received a very generous donation from the Doty Island Development Council, so it would be great to support their cleanup day!
- C. Teacher Appreciation Week is May 2nd through May 6. Need someone to chair this year.

II. Principal's report: the lottery was held last week. Letters will go out on Friday.

III. Teachers' report

- A. Campbell's soup labels is ending next year. Target is no longer doing the donation next year either.
- B. Honoring Elders will be held again this year. Students interviewed the elders last week. Cara (photographer) will work with kids, then kids will make scrap books.
- C. We had great participation for basket raffle donations.
- D. Health Day at Bridgewood April 18.
- E. Sam Kleisner told Mrs. Cates about a Rubik's cube program. Mrs. Cates' class has 36 cubes.
- F. Mrs. Cates and Mrs. Standorf are leaving Friday for AMS.
- G. Grades 4/5 will be going to Madison. Date will need to be rescheduled around UW-Madison's availability for enrichment activities.

V. Parent Rep reports

- A. Kim: Are we doing a spring spruce-up this year? Nothing has been planned yet, but could be looked at.
- B. Can get ScripNow over your smartphone within 5 minutes to use on the spot. Set up an account in your debit card, verify 2 small deposits, then Paula Sorenson ok's. Store scans phone to redeem.
- C. Have we ever done a cross-reference whether lottery winners toured? Kim has gone to governance council meetings. There are some districts that require tours, but we can't require it because we're an instrumentation of the public school.

VI. Treasurer's report

- A. Kim suggested SkyZone night, Kristin has some ideas...after basket raffle we'll see if we need it.
- B. We can meet the week after March 17 basket raffle to revise budget. Corporate grants and CFS ("Chronic Fundraising Syndrome" = straight-up donations) are up.

VII. Jill - Basket Raffle

- A. A list of basket contents will be in Wednesday envelopes.
- B. Next week volunteers will be selling raffle tickets after school.
- C. There is a Signup genius for volunteer help.
- D. Raffle is on the Alliance Facebook page as an event; please share.
- E. Knowledgeathon: buzzer system set up, need two volunteers per grade level. 5:30-7:30, 2 shifts.
- F. Knowledge-a-Thon packets will be on Facebook page.
- G. Ice cream, water, cookies for sale. Popcorn suggested by Kylie.

VIII. Miscellaneous

- A. Jill will take the photos of the 5th graders this year. Jennie EK will be making cards for graduating seniors until 2022, and Kim K will do them from 2023-2026.
- B. Erika O will do scrip next year. Still looking for treasurer and chair-elect.
- C. Great Harvest possibly not doing the Baking Day anymore, but Kelly Ellington will check into it.

Erika Otto motioned to adjourn, seconded by Christina Jungwirth. Meeting adjourned 7:20 p.m.
