The Neenah Wrestling program is designed to teach basic wrestling skills, encourage physical and social development, and provide a positive athletic experience for all members. The Neenah Wrestling program philosophy is to "Building students of Wrestling and Create Champions in Life".

Wrestling practices will take place in the Neenah High School Wrestling Facility, located in the main hallway at Neenah High School. Enter door #10 and take a left at the main hallway to a set of double doors that have the Neenah Rocket logo on them. Inside those doors is where championship people and championship results are attained. Our wrestling facility includes new mats, wall pads, false floor, surround system, cabinets, and record boards which make our training facility one of the best in Wisconsin.

No child will be turned away due to financial constraints. Email Angela Farrell for available financial assistance.
